

RALPH IBSON
NATIONAL POLICY DIRECTOR

Ralph Ibson is the National Policy Director for Wounded Warrior Project, a national veterans' service organization dedicated to honoring and empowering wounded warriors. In that capacity he heads up research and policy development on health, benefits and economic empowerment issues for WWP's Washington, DC Office of Policy and Government.

Prior to joining WWP in December 2008, Ibson served as Vice President for Government Affairs at Mental Health America (previously, the National Mental Health Association (NMHA)), where he led federal relations in support of MHA programs and mission, including advocacy in Congress and Executive Branch departments. Prior to joining NMHA in 2000, Ralph served for ten years on the staff of the Committee on Veterans Affairs in the U.S. House of Representatives. During that period, he served as Staff Director of the Subcommittee on Health. Before working in Congress, Mr. Ibson was a Deputy Assistant General Counsel at the Department of Veterans Affairs. Mr. Ibson holds a JD degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a bachelor's degree in political science from Tufts University. He is a veteran of service in the U.S. Army.

Mr Ibson and Wounded Warrior Project have not received any federal grants or contracts, during this year or in the last two fiscal years, from any agency or program relevant to the subject of the March 11, 2010 Subcommittee on Health Oversight Hearing: "Implementation of Caregiver Assistance: Are we getting it right?"
